

Welcome to the SDGs Roadshow at London South Bank University

David Clemson

Secretary, UK-Ireland PRME Chapter

an initiative of the United Nations Global Compact

UK-Ireland PRME Chapter

- “together as guardians of our fragile ecosystems...”
- 4 years old, 60 members, primarily business schools but an increasing number of universities

What do we do?

- (Play with boxes?)
- Engage in academic development, organise conferences, local and national, networking, knowledge exchange and dissemination of best practice (our next conference is at Newcastle Business School on June 26&27)

...and 'work the hyphen' (Lincoln, 2010)

- ...the hyphens business-society, investment-business, environment-economic, politics-society, consumption-sanitation, modernism-postmodernism, government-infrastructure, entrepreneurship-orthodoxy, responsibility-investment, individual-collective, education-business...
- Hi from Katherine Ng, Head of Academic Research at PRI...wishes us well! (PRI has over 1700 signatories www.unpri.org)
- What do WE do? A way-forward...

This is what makes our work happen...

 SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

