Notes to the Proxy Notice

1. As a member of the Company, you are entitled to appoint a proxy to exercise all or any of your rights to attend, speak, and vote at a general meeting of the Company. You can only appoint a proxy using the procedures set out in these notes.
2. Appointment of a proxy does not preclude you from attending the meeting and voting. If you have appointed a proxy and attend the meeting, your proxy appointment will automatically be terminated.
3. For the meeting on Thursday, 09 February 2023 (and any adjournment of that meeting) we ask that you appoint the Chair of the meeting as your proxy. A proxy does not need to be a member of the Company but must attend the meeting to represent you. To appoint as your proxy a person other than the Chair of the meeting, insert their full name where indicated. If you sign and return this proxy notice with no name inserted, the Chair of the meeting will be deemed to be your proxy. Where you appoint as your proxy someone other than the Chair, you are responsible for ensuring that they attend the meeting and are aware of your voting intentions. If you wish your proxy to make any comments on your behalf, you will need to appoint someone other than the Chair and give them the relevant instructions directly. As set out in the notice to the upcoming general meeting, the meeting will be officially hybrid, but remote attendance is highly recommended. We therefore ask that you appoint the Chair as your proxy for this meeting who will cast your vote in order to help simplify the logistics of holding this meeting.
4. To direct your proxy on how to vote on the resolutions, mark the appropriate box with an "X" (if applicable). If no voting indication is given, your proxy will vote or abstain from voting at his or her discretion. Your proxy may vote (or abstain from voting) as he or she thinks fit in relation to the limited range of additional resolutions which may be put before the meeting. These include for example:
 - 4.1 resolutions to deal with procedural aspects of the meeting such as the calling of a poll or a decision to adjourn;
 - 4.2 resolutions proposing amendments to the resolutions listed in the notice of the meeting, but note, the circumstances in which amendments can be made are very limited.
5. To appoint a proxy a PDF copy of this notice must be:
 - 5.1 completed and signed by you;
 - 5.2 sent to the Company at secretariat@unglobalcompact.org.uk. Your email should contain your name and address for identification purposes; and
 - 5.3 received by the Company no later than 08:30 GMT on Tuesday, 7 February 2023.
6. In the case of a member which is a company, this proxy form must be signed on its behalf by the authorised representative of the company.
7. If you wish to change your instructions, you can submit another notice. The appointment received last before the latest time for the receipt of proxies will take precedence.
8. To revoke your proxy instructions, send notice to the address at 5.2 above clearly stating that the instructions are revoked and ensure that the notice is received by the Company no later than 08:30 GMT on Tuesday, 7 February 2023.
9. Communications relating to proxies in respect of the meeting may only be sent to the address at 5.2 above. No other forms of communication will be accepted by the Company.
